

The Eastside of Cayuga Lake

Saturday, August 16, 2008

Fingerlakes Dexter Creamery
 1853 Blackrock Rd, King Ferry
Experience the work ethic and diligence that goes into creating home-made Kefir cheese. Pet the heirloom Dexter cows and peer into the cheese work room. This small and very unique establishment is something you will not want to miss!

Baker's Acres
 1104 Auburn Rd, Groton
Offering herbs to perennials, cider to gardening supplies, this place has everything for your gardening needs.
 Saturday Hours: 9am- 5pm

Thomson Farm
 823 Van Ostrand Rd, Groton
This young produce farm exceeds your expectations by maintaining a wide variety of fruits, vegetables and flowers, as well as managing a successful CSA. Tours will be available at the farm and produce will be sold at the grey barn at the intersection of Peruville and Van Ostrand Rd.

King Ferry Winery
 658 Lake Ave, King Ferry
Specializing in Rieslings and barrel-fermented Chardonnays, this winery is dedicated to quality service and wines.
 Saturday Hours: 10am- 5pm

Cornell Orchards
 Sweazey Rd, Lansing
 (At the bottom of the hill on the left- look for the white barn)
The diversity of this orchard is unparalleled; whether it be the variety of fruits or the research techniques being used. Enjoy the chance to take a tour of a breathtakingly beautiful and progressive orchard.

One of a Kind Apple Orchard
 35 Buck Rd, Lansing
With more than 450 apple varieties, this apple orchard will ignite your imagination and your appetite. Take a tour and learn about apple harvesting. Goods will be available for purchase.

Cayuga Landscape Co.
 2712 N. Triphammer Rd,
 Ithaca
They carry one of the largest selections of plant material in the region, including a diversely stocked perennial section and an extensive shade tree department.
 Saturday Hours: 9am-5pm

Cornell Cooperative Extension- Tompkins County
 615 Willow Ave, Ithaca
Maps and information available.

Dilmun Hill
 Judd Falls Rd & Rt. 366, Ithaca
 (Driveway is on Rt. 366- look for the wooden sign)
Take a tour of this completely student-run organic farm and learn about the importance and feasibility of sustainable farming as a progressive means of agriculture. Kid- friendly and adult- worthy, there is something here for everyone!

Key

-  Indicates Farm on Trail
-  Indicates a Point of Interest